The Bible portrays humanity as wayward and wandering sheep. Usually the reason we go astray is we are tempted by SIN. Jesus came to save us and died on the Cross to defeat the ultimate enemies - sin and death.

We think as humans we can flirt with temptation. Satan dangles temptation right in front of us. We think we can get very close to the edge and walk away. We know the action is wrong and yet we toy with it. But Satan's power ends there. He cannot force us into temptation. His power stops at the edge of our will, when we make the right decision with the help of our Lord. Jesus puts it simply: "Whoever commits sin is a slave of sin." (John 8:34)

Having experienced great temptation himself, Apostle Peter wrote later in life, "Be sober, be vigilant, because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion . . . Resist him, standing firm in the faith . . ." (1 Peter 5:8-9) We must always be alert for attacks at every turn. God gives us the strength and wisdom to recognize when we are tempted. Rely on Him for strength to resist. Respond to the lies of Satan with the truth of God's Word.

Remember that a big fall starts with a little stumble. Wayward sheep need the guidance of the Shepherd to seek and to save us. We can, with God's love and support, successfully resist Satan and his most enticing tactics!

Dear Philoptochos Members,

We hope this letter finds you and your family safe and well.

The past year has been one most of us have never experienced before, and one none of us will ever forget. We hope and pray Covid-19 has avoided your families, knowing all too well we have all been affected in many ways, most noticeably not seeing one another at church on Sundays or at monthly meetings.

This year, more than ever, Philoptochos has been called to help those in need. So many in our community: our city, the Metro area, and the state of Michigan, have found themselves in situations beyond their control. Thankfully, we have been able to answer their requests for help. That is because of you. We are blessed with a chapter that is full with members who care. You give of your time, your talents and your treasures.

Because we have not been able to see one another in person, it has been more difficult to keep up to date with our donations and stewardship. Now is the time to renew your membership with Philoptochos. It is also the time to invite others to come join us! Parishioners over the age of 18 years old, and members of the church in good standing, are eligible to join.

When completing your stewardship, please remember the first $15 is sent to the National Philoptochos office and the next $6 is sent to our Metropolis Philoptochos. Any amount beyond $21 stays with our chapter to aid our local donations and commitments.

Please complete the attached membership form today and return it with your payment, payable to: St. Nicholas Philoptochos Society. Please mail to:

Paula Kalevas
Attn: Philoptochos Membership
2264 Devonshire Road
Bloomfield Hills, MI 48302

If you have any questions, of course, feel free to contact me: 248-227-9343.
If you prefer, you may also renew your stewardship online through the St. Nicholas website at:

PHASE 2: Ongoing COVID-19 Safety Protocols Update for our St. Nicholas Church

Dear Saint Nicholas Family,

His Eminence, Metropolitan Nicholas, has provided us with guidelines for the 2nd Phase in the reopening of our Church. They are within the guidelines offered by our Archdiocese, the Center for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) and the State of Michigan directives. The continued safety of you, your loved ones, and our staff is of paramount importance. We ask that you share the link with anyone who may not receive our Emails.

How can I attend church on in person?
- Once you arrive at church, we will have mini health stations led by licensed health care professionals to scan your temperature and ask a few COVID-19 health questions.
- Wearing a mask in church is MANDATORY (except for medical reasons, i.e. COPD which must then be accompanied by a note from a licensed healthcare provider; MD/DO, NP, PA)
- Please try and arrive promptly by 9:30AM to limit disruptions to the Liturgy

What will church look like when I arrive?
- Once you arrive at church and pass the COVID-19 mini health assessment, you will proceed to the Narthex.
  - Central trays will be provided in the Narthex for your candles and offering, as no basket will be passed in church.
  - Please light your candle, Venerate the icon, please do not kiss the icons.
  - Our ushers will guide you to a designated seating area based on our social distancing policies and the number of members in your family.
- Please follow posted entry points, aisles, and designated seating areas.
- Please do not alter or remove any of the social distancing material in the pews or aisles.

How will my family be seated at church?
- A family unit can be seated together if they have been quarantining together. Special care must be made to ensure that the family is 6 feet from other parishioners.
- Please follow the guidance of our ushers so we adhere to the social distancing guidelines.

Can I receive communion?
- Father Paul and Father Michael will provide direction on how communion will be distributed following guidelines offered by His Eminence and Archbishop.
- Communion will start at the back of the church and proceed forward. Please follow the direction of our ushers so that the church maintains social distancing and safety for our parishioners.

What happens after divine liturgy?
- Antidoron will be blessed by our Priests and distributed via plastic bags in the aisles. This is to prevent congregating around the Priests during distribution.
- Please do not kiss Father Paul or Father Michael’s hand.
- Upon exiting the Nave, please exit the church immediately; do not congregate in the Narthex. Please keep your mask on until you fully exit the church building.
- Upon exiting, please follow the directions of our ushers maintaining proper social distancing guidelines while respectfully exiting church.

Way of the Ascetics is a rich, compact introduction for modern readers to the Eastern Christian spiritual tradition that has been an inspiration to millions for centuries. These compassionate and insightful reflections on self-control and inner peace are meant to lead the readers to fuller union with God. The author makes a generous selection of succinct yet profound extracts from the spiritual Fathers and provides an illuminating commentary and practical applications for daily devotion. He tempers austerity with common sense, warmth, and even humor, as he urges us on our journey toward God. Written for laypersons living fully in the world as much as for clergy, Way of the Ascetics is an excellent resource for daily meditation, authentic spiritual guidance, and a revitalized religious life.

APOLYTIAKIA

Resurrectional

When You descended unto death, O Lord who yourself are immortal Life, then did You mortify Hades by the lightning flash of Your Divinity. Also when You raised the dead from the netherworld, all the Powers of the heavens were crying out: O Giver of life, Christ our God, glory to You.

Of the Feast

Lady full of grace, rejoice, O Virgin Theotokos, for Christ our God, the Sun of righteousness has risen from you and He illumined those in darkness. And you, righteous Elder, be glad in heart, receiving in your embraces the One who liberates our souls and bestows on us the Resurrection.

Of the Church

A standard of firm belief and an icon of gentleness, of self-control an instructor, you were revealed to your sacred flock, by the reality of your deeds, for this reason you acquired, by humility, heaven’s heights, and by poverty riches, Father and Great Hierarch Nicholas, intercede with Christ our God, to sanctify and save our souls.

KONTAKION

Of the Feast

You sanctified the virginal womb by Your birth, O Lord, and blessed the hands of Symeon fittingly, O Christ God; and even now You came and saved us. Now, give peace to our Nation in time of war, and empower our Leaders, so loved by You, the only one who loves humanity.

Lord Jesus Christ Our God,

We thank You for all good things that You have shown upon us from above, blessings seen and unseen and for the sacred task that You have placed before us as Godparents of our spiritual children.

Recalling Your words to let the little children come unto You and that it is not the will of our heavenly Father that one of these little ones should perish, we beg You to look upon our spiritual children and have mercy on them. Grant them the grace to know You and the desire to serve You. Inscribe their names in Your book of life.

Having been baptized with the Holy Spirit and fire, guide them toward Your blessed commandments and protect them from the attacks of the evil one. Surround them with Your holy and heavenly angels and let no evil thought find a place in their hearts.

Forgive us, also, Lord, for all of the ways in which we have neglected, in thought, word or deed, to set an example of repentance and devotion for our spiritual children to follow. Enlighten our hearts and minds with the will and knowledge, from this moment forward, to fulfill our holy calling as the sponsors of our Godchildren’s entrance into your Heavenly Kingdom. Amen.

Epistle Reading
16th Sunday of Matthew

The Lord is my strength and my song.
Verse: The Lord has chastened me sorely.

Brethren, working together with him, we entreat you not to accept the grace of God in vain. For he says, "At the acceptable time I have listened to you, and helped you on the day of salvation." Behold, now is the acceptable time; behold, now is the day of salvation. We put no obstacle in any one's way, so that no fault may be found with our ministry, but as servants of God we commend ourselves in every way: through great endurance, in afflictions, hardships, calamities, beatings, imprisonments, tumults, labors, watching, hunger; by purity, knowledge, forbearance, kindness, the Holy Spirit, genuine love, truthful speech, and the power of God; with the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and for the left; in honor and dishonor, in ill repute and good repute. We are treated as impostors, and yet are true; as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and behold we live; as punished, and yet not killed; as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing everything.

Corinthians 6:1-10
Prayer of Protection from the Coronavirus

Blessed is our God always, now and ever and to the ages of ages. Amen

Heavenly King, Comforter, the Spirit of Truth: You are everywhere filling all things;
Treasury of blessings and Giver of life: come and abide in us, cleanse us of every impurity, and save our souls, O Good One!

Holy God, Holy and Mighty, Holy Immortal, have mercy on us (3).

Glory to the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, now and forever and to the ages of ages. Amen.

All holy Trinity, have mercy on us, Lord, forgive our sins.

Master, pardon our transgressions.

Holy One, visit and heal our infirmities for Your name’s sake.

Treasury of blessings and Giver of life: come and abide in us, cleanse us of every impurity, and save our souls, O Good One!

Blessed is our God always, now and ever and to the ages of ages. Amen.

The Gospel According to Matthew

The Lord said this parable: “A man going on a journey called his servants and entrusted to them his property; to one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away. He who had received the five talents went at once and traded with them; and he made five talents more. So also, he who had the two talents made two talents more. But he who had received the one talent went and dug in the ground and hid his master’s money. Now after a long time the master of those servants came and settled accounts with them. And he who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five talents more, saying, ‘Master, you delivered to me five talents; here I have made five talents more.’ His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and faithful servant; you have been faithful over a little, I will set you over much; enter into the joy of your master.’ And he also who had the two talents came forward, saying, ‘Master, you delivered to me two talents; here I have made two talents more.’ His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and faithful servant; you have been faithful over a little, I will set you over much; enter into the joy of your master.’ He also who had received the one talent came forward, saying, ‘Master, I knew you to be a hard man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not winnow; so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours.’ But his master answered him, ‘You wicked and slothful servant! You knew that I reap where I have not sowed, and gather where I have not winnowed? Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and at my coming I should have received what was my own with interest. So take the talent from him, and give it to him who has the ten talents. For to every one who has will be given, and he will have abundance; but from him who has not, even what he has will be taken away. And cast the worthless servant into the outer darkness; there men will weep and gnash their teeth,

As he said these things he cried out: “He who has ears to hear, let him hear!” Matthew 25:14-30
