Prayer is important to our religious life. In general, there are two forms of prayer – Private and Public, that is alone or together in community.

During the course of His earthly life, Jesus taught us about both forms. He Himself went up to a mount and prayed alone with His Heavenly Father, as He did also in Gethsemane. He taught people to pray “in secret,” to close the door and commune with God. But He also urged people to pray publicly, especially at worship. “Where two or three are together in My Name, there am I amongst them.” Christ went regularly to the temple in sanctification of the Sabbath. And so we, too, gather each Lord’s Day, to pray together as the Family of God.

But there are ingredients to TRUE prayer, whether private or public. The parable of the Publican and the Pharisee points to a factor that, on the one hand, kills effective prayer; and a factor, on the other hand, that facilitates true communion with the Lord.

We see the pride, the hypocrisy, the failure of love in the example of the Pharisee, who stood before the crowd in the temple and bragged about his righteousness. We also see the true humility, the need for God and forgiveness on the part of the Publican who stood back and beat his breast praying “God, be merciful to me a sinner!”

Christ ended his teaching with this: “For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted.” May we heed this warning against hypocrisy.

APOLYTIKIA

Resurrectional

When the women Disciples of the Lord had learned from the Angel the joyful message of the Resurrection and rejected the ancestral decision, they cried aloud to the Apostles triumphantly: Death has been despoiled, Christ God has risen, granting His great mercy to the world.

Of the Church

The truth of your way of life led your flock to believe in you as a canon of faith and as a holy image of gentleness and as a teacher of temperance. You have therefore acquired through your humility the greatest heights and riches through poverty. Father, Holy Hierarch Nicholas intercede to Christ our God, entreating that our souls may be saved.

Epistle Reading
Sunday of the Publican and Pharisee

O Lord, how manifold are your works.
You have made all things in wisdom.
Verse: Bless the Lord, O my soul.

TIMOTHY, my son, you have observed my teaching, my conduct, my aim in life, my faith, my patience, my love, my steadfastness, my persecutions, my sufferings, what befell me at Antioch, at Iconion, and at Lystra, what persecutions I endured; yet from them all the Lord rescued me. Indeed all who desire to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted, while evil men and impostors will go on from bad to worse, deceivers and deceived. But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it and how from childhood you have been acquainted with the sacred writings which are able to instruct you for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.

Timothy 3:10-15

Gospel Reading
Sunday of the Publican and Pharisee

The Lord said this parable, "Two men went up into the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, 'God, I thank you that I am not like other men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week, I give tithes of all that I get.' But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, 'God, be merciful to me a sinner!' I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but he who humbles himself will be exalted."

January 2021
Dear Philoptochos Members,

We hope this letter finds you and your family safe and well.

The past year has been one most of us have never experienced before, and one none of us will ever forget. We hope and pray Covid-19 has avoided your families, knowing all too well we have all been affected in many ways, most noticeably not seeing one another at church on Sundays or at monthly meetings.

This year, more than ever, Philoptochos has been called to help those in need. So many in our community: our city, the Metro area, and the state of Michigan, have found themselves in situations beyond their control. Thankfully, we have been able to answer their requests for help. That is because of you. We are blessed with a chapter that is full with members who care. You give of your time, your talents and your treasures.

Because we have not been able to see one another in person, it has been more difficult to keep up to date with our donations and stewardship. Now is the time to renew your membership with Philoptochos. It is also the time to invite others to come join us! Parishioners over the age of 18 years old, and members of the church in good standing, are eligible to join.

When completing your stewardship, please remember the first $15 is sent to the National Philoptochos office and the next $6 is sent to our Metropolis Philoptochos. Any amount beyond $21 stays with our chapter to aid our local donations and commitments.

Please complete the attached membership form today and return it with your payment, payable to: St. Nicholas Philoptochos Society. Please mail to:

Paula Kalevas
Attn: Philoptochos Membership
2284 Devonshire Road
Bloomfield Hills, MI 48302

If you have any questions, of course, feel free to contact me: 248-227-9343.
If you prefer, you may also renew your stewardship online through the St. Nicholas website at:

PRAYER OF PROTECTION FROM THE CORONAVIRUS

Blessed is our God always, now and ever and to the ages of ages. Amen.

Heavenly King, Comforter, the Spirit of Truth: You are everywhere filling all things;
Treasury of blessings and Giver of life: come and abide in us, cleanse us of every impurity, and save our souls, O Good One!

Holy God, Holy and Mighty, Holy Immortal, have mercy on us (3).
Glory to the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, now and forever and to the ages of ages. Amen.

All holy Trinity, have mercy on us. Lord, forgive our sins.

Master, pardon our transgressions.

Holy One, visit and heal our infirmities for Your name's sake.

Lord, have mercy. (3)

Glory to the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, now and forever and to the ages of ages. Amen.

Our Father, who are in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory, of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, now and forever and to the ages of ages. Amen.

Prayer of Protection from the Coronavirus
(Prayer by Grace Bishop Alexis (Trader) of Bethesda)

O God Almighty, Lord of heaven and earth, and of all creation visible and invisible, in Your ineffable goodness, look down upon Your people gathered in Your name. Be our helper and defender in this day of affliction. You know our weakness. You hear our cry in repentance and contrition of heart. O Lord who loves mankind deliver us from the impending threat of the corona virus. Send Your Angel to watch over us and protect us. Grant health and recovery to those suffering from this virus. Guide the hands of physicians, and preserve those who are healthy that we may continue to serve You in peace and glorify Your most honorable and majestic Name, of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, now and forever and to the ages of ages.

People: Amen.
